Greetings:

On behalf of the City and County of Denver, welcome to the Mile High City and the 12th annual Downtown Denver Arts Festival. The Downtown Denver Arts Festival is one of the many events that make Denver the Creative Capital of the West. Denver has no shortage of cultural options, as the Mile High City boasts a variety of attractions, including the 10-theatre Denver Performing Arts Complex, many art districts with a myriad of galleries, and amazing public art.

For the past 12 years, the Downtown Denver Arts Festival has promoted the best in visual arts and artists from throughout our state. We are proud of the local talent and resources being showcased in this year's festival. As Denver's reputation grows on the national stage as an art-centric city, the Downtown Denver Arts Festival helps promote that image with its premier collections of art.

Congratulations to the Downtown Denver Arts Festival on 12 years of celebrating the best of Colorado's artists.

Sincerely,
